

LINDA COHEN - CCCE Affiliate
Community Organizer and Developer
Non-Profit Project Manager

Linda is a resourceful, and seasoned relationship and community builder who makes valuable, productive connections to advance missions. She is a highly collaborative team player skilled at initiating and guiding complex projects.

She has strong analytical, organizational and planning abilities, and is able to quickly and effectively organize, coordinate, and shepherd projects that yield great results, all the while training others.

She is a member of CCCE's Research and Advocacy Network and the Anti-Displacement Committee.